

DEADLINES OF THE GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT (RGAC) FOR THE 2023/2024 ACADEMIC YEAR

Bachelors

Paragraph 3, Article 11 of the RGAC

Masters

Paragraph 2, Article 4 of Appendix II of the RGAC

Doctorates

Paragraph 2, Article 4 of the RGAC

The marks for each test must be submitted ("submit" option) via Fénix, to the Degree/Masters/Doctorates Office, within the following deadlines:

- Normal Exam Period – 1st and 2nd Semesters
By 72 hours before the respective Re-sit Period written exam sitting;
- Re-sit Exam Period – 1st Semester
By the 11st of February, 2024;
- Re-sit Exam Period – 2nd Semester
By the 10th of July, 2024;
- Special Season Period taking place in March (only applicable for Bachelor's degrees)
By 7 days after the respective exam sitting;
- Special Season Period to be held between the end of the 2nd semester assessments and the beginning of classes for the first semester of the new academic year.
Before the first day of lectures of the 1st Semester of 2024/2025

Paragraph 5

The date/time/room of the consultation of exam papers session must be announced by email to the students, immediately after the finalisation of the score.

It must be done 24 hours after the publication of the marks and until the maximum deadline of 72 hours before the respective written exam of the following season.